Eastwest QUANTUM LEAP SILK Eastwest

Incredibly detailed Silk Road instruments from China, Persia and India. The most ambitious ethnic instrument ever created. 25 gig instrument: 20 gigs of multi-samples and 5 gigs of authentic performances. Recorded legato intervals for erhu, zhonghu, jinhua, electric cello, kemenche, duduk, 30 piece string section, dilruba, bansuri. Master musicians recorded at East West Studios and Capitol Studios, using vintage Neumann microphones, Neve consoles and Meitner converters. New PLAY 32 bit/64 bit interface features state of the art convolution reverb, scripting and new revolutionary micro-tuning system. Features: User interface custom designed for each virtual instrument, including only the controls needed. 64-bit support allows you to load many more instruments and voices, limited only by your system RAM. Easy to use browser displays all of your instruments. Interface automatically changes to display current instrument. Articulation list shows all expressions within the instrument. No need to look up key-switches. Real time performance analysis detects legato and repetitive playing and responds accordingly. Stereo handling allows swapping left and right channels, mono from left, mono from right, or mono sum. Load, unload, mix, pan, mute mic positions with built-in mic mixer (Pianos, Symphonic Orchestra, Symphonic Choirs). The best sounding and most powerful effects engine available, including impulse response reverb, filters, and specialized effects such as Artificial Double Tracking (ADT). Highest quality resampling engine. Custom engine allows us to design instruments without compromise. Easy authorization system puts licenses on hardware iLok, allowing you to take your software on any computer. Natively supported in all major hosts on all major operating systems - PLAY no matter what your platform. More native support than any other plug-in. Load as many instruments as your computer can handle in one application. AU, VST, Standalone, Intel Mac, PPC Mac, Windows XP and Vista, 64-bit,...
